- c) The leader of each Operational Team shall be selected by the members of the Team.

1.3 Executive Committee

1.3.1 The President shall annually appoint the Executive Committee.

1.3.2 The Executive Committee may meet between Board Meetings to review matters impacting upon the operation of the Church and to prepare recommendations for the consideration of the Board.

1.3.3 The Executive Committee has only those decision-making powers specifically delegated to it by the Board.

1.4 Board Meetings

1.4.1 As specified in Article V Section 3 of the Bylaws, all Board meetings are open to the registered members of the Church. The agenda for all Board meetings shall include an opportunity for Church Members to ask questions.

1.4.2 In order to ensure confidentiality or to protect privacy interests, the Board may pass a motion to meet in-camera for a specific agenda item. In these cases, the minutes of the meeting shall disclose the general nature of the matters under discussion and document the Board's decision, if any.

1.4.3 As specified in Article V Section 2 of the Bylaws, one-half of the elected Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

1.4.4 As specified in Article V Section 1 of the Bylaws, a meeting of the Board may be called at any time by the President, or by any two Board Members. The time and place of Board Meetings shall be communicated to all Board Members. Normally, the Board meets monthly on a day to be decided by the Board.

1.4.5 As specified in Article VI Section 5 of the Bylaws, the Board Secretary shall be responsible for keeping an accurate record of the transactions of the Board and general meetings and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board. A permanent record of all Board documents shall be maintained in a place of safe custody such as the Church office. As specified in Article V Section 4, draft minutes of all Board meetings are to be posted in the Church office within two weeks of the meeting.

1.5 Minister

1.5.1 The Minister's duties are defined in the Minister's Letter of Agreement and the reporting relationship of the Minister is defined in the Church Bylaws.

1.6 Committee on Ministry

1.6.1 The mandate of this Committee is to enhance a strong, healthy relationship between the professional Minister(s) and the Congregation by serving as a communication channel. The Committee shall also advocate for professional development and fair compensation of the Minister(s), and evaluate the relationship between the Minister(s) and the Congregation.

1.6.2 The Committee shall consist of six members in total.

1.6.3 The Committee shall elect a chair who reports to the Board annually, or more frequently as determined by the Committee or the Board.

1.6.4 The Board shall appoint Committee members as follows:

1. Each year the terms of two members of the Committee shall expire and the two vacancies need to be filled. The Board Executive shall generate a confidential list of four names, all of whom shall be members, soliciting suggestions from all Board members and from members of the Congregation, in confidential one-on-one communications.
2. Concurrently, the Ministers shall generate a confidential list of four names, all of whom shall be Church members.
3. The Ministers, the President, and the Vice President, shall review all eight names, and, striving for a balance of diversity factors (gender, length of membership, areas of interest & knowledge, etc.), create a 'short list' of four names, at least two of which were originally Board suggestions.
4. The Board, meeting in camera, shall approve the four proposed names.
5. The minister(s) shall contact the four Board-approved names until the two vacancies are filled, ensuring that at least one of those positions is filled by a person originally suggested by the Board. The Board shall appoint the nominees.

1.6.5 A committee member shall serve a three-year non-renewable term.

1.6.6 Should a vacancy occur, the Board, meeting in-camera, shall appoint a replacement from a list of two nominees agreed upon and submitted by the minister(s) and the Board Executive. The appointed member shall serve the remainder of the term and, upon expiry, may serve a continuing three-year term if the vacancy is less than two years.

1.6.7 Upon the calling of a new minister, the members of the Ministerial Search Committee shall assume the duties of the Committee on Ministry for an interim period. Their terms shall expire as the Board appoints members to the Committee on Ministry.

1.7 Staff and Contractors

1.7.1 All staff and contractors shall have a contract that specifies their duties, pay, benefits and reporting relationships.

4.24.7 The Team is a member of the Administration Council.

4.25 Denominational Affairs

4.25.1 The mandate of the Team is to:

a) Keep abreast of events occurring in the CUC, UUA, and IARF and to advise the Board and Church membership on opportunities to participate in events or programs offered by these agencies.

b) Represent the Church on the Vancouver Island Unitarian Committee that organizes an annual conference and summer camp.

c) Annually solicit nominations for the appropriate number of CUC Annual Meeting delegates for the Board to recommend for approval by the congregation at the first general meeting of each fiscal/calendar year.

4.25.2 The membership of this Team shall consist of at least one Church member.

4.25.3 The Team is a member of the Outreach Council.

4.26 AV Committee

4.26.1 The mandate of the Committee is to develop, communicate and implement an AV service plan based on consultation with a broad base of the Congregation that meets internal church needs and reaches out to relevant external communities.

4.26.2 The committee can consist of three to four people with a variety of technical and organizational skills and experience from among the current AV team, and the congregation. E.g., outreach, rental committee.

4.26.3 The committee is a member of the Administration Council.

CHAPTER FIVE

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

5.1 Accountability

5.1.1 The Board is accountable to the congregation for all matters related to the financial affairs of the Church.

5.1.2 The Treasurer is accountable to the Board and the congregation to ensure that all financial matters within the Church are conducted in a manner consistent with the Church Bylaws, Board Policy, the Federal, Provincial, and Municipal Tax legislation and good accounting procedures.

5.2 Revenue Collection

5.2.1 All revenues or assets of any kind contributed to the Church or raised during a Church function must pass through the hands of the Treasurer or Church Administrator.

5.2.2 All funds received by the Church shall be promptly deposited in the bank or invested in a manner directed by the Treasurer.

5.2.3 All assets, physical or financial, donated to the Church shall be evaluated by the Treasurer and tax receipts will be issued where appropriate.

5.3 Expenditures

5.3.1 As specified in Article X Sections 1 and 2 of the Bylaws, the Signing Officers for any bank account operated by, or about to be operated by the Church, shall be any two of the following: President, Treasurer and three other elected Board Members appointed by the Board. The signature of any one of the signing officers shall be sufficient for inter account transfers of funds, including transactions involving Term Deposits, but this authority shall not extend to withdrawal of funds from any of the Church Accounts.

5.3.2 The chair of each Church Committee or Team leader and/or a person designated by the Committee or Team is a designated financial officer for that Committee or Team. All requests for payment of invoices by Committees or Teams must be submitted on the appropriate requisition form and signed by the Committee or Team financial officer. If the Committee or Team financial officer is not available, the appropriate Council chair may sign the requisition form. In the event that neither is available and payment of the invoice is urgent, the Treasurer may sign the requisition form and prepare the cheque.

5.3.3 All invoices submitted by staff for payment must be signed by the staff member accountable for that budget line item.

5.3.4 In the event of an emergency, any expenditure may be made with the approval of the Treasurer or the President.

5.4 Annual Operating Budget

5.4.1 As specified in Article XI Sections 11 of the Bylaws, the fiscal year begins on January 1 of each year and ends on December 31.

5.4.2 The end of each fiscal year, the chair of the Finance Committee shall prepare an Annual Operating Budget (AOB) for the next fiscal year. Unless specifically instructed by the Board, the AOB shall be balanced or forecast a modest surplus.

5.4.3 In the preparation of the AOB, the chair of the Finance Committee may consult with the Committee or Team financial officials, Church staff, the Minister, the Treasurer, Council chairs, the Board and others.

5.4.4 The AOB shall include all revenue and expenditures related to:

- a) Church programs, staff salary and benefits, and office expenditures,
- b) Building and grounds maintenance, and mortgage payments
- c) Special projects funded by special fundraising events.

5.4.5 Early in the fiscal year, the proposed AOB shall be presented by the chair of the Finance Committee and/or the chair of the Administration Council to the membership at a General Meeting for adoption.

5.5 Fundraising

5.5.1 The chair of the Administration Council must approve all special activities in the Church that result in the raising of significant funds from the membership or the surrounding community.

5.5.2 All funds collected at these events must be given to the Treasurer, or persons designated by the Treasurer. No expenses are to be paid directly out of cash receipts.

5.5.3 Upon request, the Treasurer may issue a float to cover setup costs and to provide change for cash transactions. At the end of the fundraising activity, a full accounting of the expenditures taken from the float must be submitted to the Treasurer.

5.5.4 Members may not profit personally from any portion of funds raised on behalf of the Church.

5.5.5 Fundraising on Church premises by non-Church groups must be approved by the Administration Council chair, adhering to the following guidelines:

- a) Fundraising sales must directly reflect the purpose and/or mandate of the group.
- b) Groups must be non-profit as defined by the Canada Revenue Agency.
- c) Liability for any goods that are lost, damaged or stolen rests solely with the outside group.

5.6 Sale of Goods and Services

5.6.1 Members and contributing friends may advertise goods and services in Church publications, on payment of a fee if appropriate.

5.6.2 Members who advertise goods in Church publications may deliver to Church premises, with approval of the Administration Council chair.

5.6.3 Members and non-members approved by the Arts and Aesthetics Committee may display items (e.g., arts and crafts) for sale on Church premises. The Church shall retain 15 percent of the sold price on each item as rental fee. Liability for any items lost, damaged or stolen rests solely with the individual.

5.7 Annual Membership Canvass

5.7.1 Each fall the leader of the Canvass Team shall conduct a canvass of all Church members and friends, seeking financial pledges for the upcoming fiscal year.

5.7.2 The plan for conducting the fall canvass must be submitted to the chair of the Administration

Council in August for approval.

5.7.3 The leader of the Canvass Team shall take steps to ensure that the pledge information is handled confidentially as required by the Church Bylaws.

5.7.4 The leader of the Canvass Team shall report the results of the canvass to the chair of the Administration Council and the chair of the Finance Committee by December first.

5.8 Capital Campaign

5.8.1 The congregation may approve a capital campaign to raise money for a major capital project.

5.8.2 The Treasurer shall obtain approval of the Federal Minister of Finance to issue tax receipts for the money raised before the campaign begins.

5.8.3 The Board shall appoint a Capital Campaign Manager, who will assume responsibility for all aspects of the Capital Campaign.

5.8.4 All funds raised in a Capital Campaign shall be held separately from all other funds in the Church and are to be used only for the purposes of completing the capital project.

5.8.5 At the end of the project, a full accounting of the revenues and expenditures for the project shall be made to the membership at a General Meeting and it shall decide on matters related to any shortfall or surplus of funds.

5.9 Outside User Group Donations

5.9.1 In January of each year, the Property Management Council shall submit to the Board for its approval a suggested rental donation schedule for the use of the Church buildings and grounds.

5.9.2 The Church Administrator shall oversee the advertising and scheduling of events in the Church buildings and on the Church grounds in accordance with Section 6.3 of this Policy Manual.

5.9.3 The Church Administrator shall collect the rental donation for use of Church assets in accordance with the rental donation schedule approved by the Board. Deviations from this schedule are permitted in special circumstances with the permission of the chair of the Property Management Council.

5.9.4 Users of church facilities and gardens shall read the Host Manual on safety and security of the Church or engage a Church designated Host; shall adhere to Food Safe regulations and the standards of Vancouver Island Health Authority (also known as Island Health); shall have 'firm control of the event' by persons named as responsible for the event; shall adhere to the Church Administrator's directions, including liquor licensing laws and Church guidelines.

5.10 Monthly Financial Reporting

5.10.1 At each monthly Board meeting, the Treasurer shall submit a report on the status of revenues and expenditures as related to the Annual Operating Budget and the status of Trust and Discretionary Funds.

5.11 Annual Report and Financial Review

5.11.1 Each year at the Annual General Meeting, the Treasurer shall present a full reporting of all aspects of the Church finances for the previous year in accordance with Article XI Section 10 of the Bylaws.

5.11.2 The Treasurer shall ensure that the Financial Review Committee is given full and easy access to all financial records and accounts. The report of the Financial Review Committee shall be tabled at the AGM in accordance with Article IX Section 1 of the Bylaws.

5.11.3 In accordance with Article VI Section 8, the Board shall table a report on insurance coverage at each Annual General Meeting.

5.12 Special Funds

5.12.1 In accordance with Article XI of the Bylaws, the Board may establish Trust Funds, Discretionary Funds and Revolving Funds to manage the revenues of the Church.

5.12.2 The revenues in these Funds shall be invested, in accordance with Article XI Section 12 of the Bylaws, by the Treasurer following consultation with the Investment Team. The increase in value of the investments shall be prorated annually among the Trust Funds and Discretionary Funds.

5.12.3 The interest, dividends and monthly distributions from the investments shall be credited as "Investment Income" in the Annual Operating Budget and may be assigned by the Board to specific program areas.

5.12.4 Upon establishing a Trust Fund or Revolving Fund the Board shall appoint a designated financial official. To withdraw money from one of these funds, a requisition form must be completed and signed by the designated financial official for that fund.

5.12.5 The Board may extinguish a Revolving Fund and Trust Fund at any time with the approval of the designated financial official or, if the designated financial official is unavailable, upon advice from the Investment Team and approval of the Treasurer. All monies from the extinguished Fund shall be deposited in the annual Operating Fund.

5.13 Endowment Fund

5.13.1 The Endowment Fund has been established by the congregation to provide long-term fiscal viability and stability to the Church. All bequests and gifts to the Endowment Fund are to be invested and managed as a perpetual financial pillar of the church.

5.13.2 The initial target funding level for the Endowment Fund is the annual operating budget of the church.

5.13.3 Any withdrawals from the Endowment Fund must be approved by the congregation at an Annual General Meeting or Special Meeting.

5.14 Undesignated Gifts

5.14.1 All undesignated financial gifts shall be deposited into the Endowment Fund.

5.14.2 The value of an undesignated property gift shall be determined by the Property Management Council, which has the right to accept or reject the gift or to make a recommendation to the Board. Any property gift which may incur future costs to the Church must be approved by the Board.

5.14.3 With Board approval, accepted undesignated property gifts may be sold or otherwise disposed of by the Property Management Council chair and all proceeds realized shall be deposited in the Endowment Fund.

5.15 Large Financial Commitments

5.15.1 The negotiation and management of the Church mortgage shall be the responsibility of the Treasurer. Both the Treasurer and the President shall sign the Church Mortgage.

5.15.2 The President shall sign all contracts with staff, consultants, architects and contractors.

5.15.3 The President shall sign all Church use contracts with a term longer than two months.

5.16 Property and Liability Insurance

5.16.1 The church shall carry and have in force an Insurance Policy that provides coverage in the appropriate amounts as recommended by the Insurance Coordinator and approved by the Board to cover not only loss of our physical assets but provide liability coverage for all approved and or sanctioned activities. An approved or sanctioned activity is one that is sponsored by or officially endorsed by a Council Chair and directly administered by a recognized committee of the church. Written confirmation of sponsorship by the Council Chair may be required. For activities that are not “Approved or sanctioned” the outside group(s) will carry their own insurance.

5.16.2 Where proof of insurance is required by an offsite facility the charge for this service if any will be borne by the sponsoring group and a specific rider shall be obtained from the Insurance Company for that activity. It is the responsibility of the individuals or committee organizing the event to ensure that insurance is obtained and the terms and conditions of the insurance policy are adhered to.

5.16.3 With respect to any children’s programs those responsible for the activity shall follow the policies and procedures developed for the Spiritual Exploration and Learning Children’s and Youth Program as the minimum standard.

5.17 Sunday Plate Collection

5.17.1 Proceeds of undesignated monies from each Sunday plate collection may be donated to a non-church charity.

5.17.2 On special Sundays, as determined by the Worship Committee, 100 per cent of undesignated monies may be donated to the Unitarian-Universalist United Nations Organization, Child Haven, Seeds for Survival (Unitarian Service Committee) or the Canadian Unitarian Council.

5.17.3 On remaining Sundays, 50 per cent of undesignated monies may be donated to an appropriate charity registered with the Canada Revenue Agency as determined by the Social Responsibility Coalition and reviewed by the Board.

5.17.4 The Social Responsibility Committee shall notify the Worship Committee and church members of the approved donor charity.

CHAPTER SIX

OPERATIONAL POLICY

6.1 Lay Chaplains

6.1.1 The Board shall review all recommendations from the Lay Chaplaincy Team regarding the appointment of new Lay Chaplains prior to the matter being put before the congregation for decision. The Board shall confirm that the applicant(s) have fully met the requirements of the CUC Committee on Lay Chaplaincy and Ministry.

6.1.2 The fee structure of the Lay Chaplains that includes requirements for the provision of services to members and for use of Church facilities must have Board approval.

6.2 Abuse of Power

6.2.1. It is the policy of this church to provide a safe environment for minors, vulnerable adults and indeed all people. This church has zero tolerance for abuse, harassment or neglect committed by employees, members and volunteers in any church program. This policy of zero tolerance must be maintained to satisfy the church's insurer.

6.2.2. The purpose of this policy is to prevent harm to children, youth and vulnerable adults in church programs, and to protect staff and volunteers from false or wrongful allegations. In addition to complying with federal and provincial laws, this policy is intended to secure compliance with the Eight Unitarian Principles.

6.2.3. Abuse of power may include verbal, emotional, intellectual, spiritual, physical, and/or sexual abuse, molestation or harassment or neglect by one person against another, typically where one person possesses greater power than another by virtue of their age, gender, position of authority, physical strength, or economic status.

6.2.4. An Abuse Prevention Plan shall be maintained by the church's Insurance Coordinator. The plan shall be reviewed at least annually and updated as needed. Implementation of the plan shall be audited at least annually. Results of audits shall be reported to the Board of Trustees, which is responsible for overseeing necessary remedial action.

6.2.5. The "Congregational Covenant of Good Relations" (January 2011) of the First Unitarian Church of Victoria, Victoria B.C, contains guidelines regarding respect between people associated with the congregation.

6.2.6. The members of the First Unitarian Church of Victoria, through their Board of Trustees, in consultation and with the approval of the Minister will suggest three trusted people, any one of whom may be approached, to listen to concerns arising as a result of any experience of abusive behaviour by people associated with the congregation. These three people will be available in a counselling / consulting capacity for these special conversations. These three people will be invited to be involved.

6.2.7. These appointments will be reviewed by the Board of Trustees on an annual basis before the Annual General Meeting.

6.2.8. Each and every person associated with the First Unitarian Church of Victoria has the right to confidentiality regarding any of these special conversations except under the following conditions:

6.2.8.1 If neglect or abuse of a minor or a vulnerable adult is suspected, in which case the incident must be reported to the police and the Insurance Coordinator immediately. (Refer to the Abuse Prevention Plan for full reporting and follow-up procedures. Vulnerable adults include people who by virtue of their age or cognitive or physical ability are unable to adequately care for themselves, and all refugees who are being sponsored by the church.)

6.2.8.2 If there is a court order to produce documentation (see below).

6.2.8.3 If there is a signed and witnessed Release and Exchange of Information which states, in part, the understanding "that any information will not be sent through "public" communication corridors (for example: cordless phone, cell phone, FAX, email, etc.) The requested information will be relayed by private "ear to ear" telephone conversation (for example, not on "speaker" phone); and/or by letter correspondence sent by Canada Post designated PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL.

6.2.8.4 This correspondence is not to be available to others, except to the named person(s) and if necessary her/his appointed staff in the course of carrying out their assigned duties relating to the situation and is considered null and void 30 days from the witnessed date of signing.

6.2.9. Formal written notation describing the situation(s) will be made in collaboration with those involved in the conversations. These notes will be filed in a double-locked secured location determined as safe by the Board of Trustees. These documents will be released only as described in section 6.2.8. Reporting of events will be guided by the Confidentiality exceptions as described in 6.2.

6.3 Discipline or Expulsion of Members

6.3.1 The Church Bylaws (section 2.12) authorizes the Board to exercise the power to discipline or expel any member.

6.3.2 To assist the Board in carrying out these responsibilities the Board may establish a Conflict Management Team, and a Sexual Misconduct Team. Members of these teams will be given special training and they may establish guidelines to assist the membership in dealing with these matters. Members of these teams shall be thoroughly familiar with the church's Abuse Prevention Plan.

6.3.3 In exercising this authority the Board shall be mindful to meet the requirements of natural justice and fundamental fairness.

6.3.4 Refer to FUCV's Abuse Prevention Plan for definitions of abuse.

6.3.5 Any complaints against an employee, member, friend or visitor may be made verbally, and must be followed in writing to a member of the Board, who must deal with the complaint promptly. Complaints alleging misconduct involving a minor or vulnerable person must be handled in accordance with 6.2.8.1.

6.3.6 The President shall review all complaints and, if deemed appropriate, refer the matter to the Conflict Management Team, the Sexual Misconduct Team or a mediator for examination and preparation recommendations to the Board. To protect the reputations of those involved, all or portions of the examination must be held in closed session.

6.3.7 The grounds for discipline or expulsion include;

- a) Grave breaches of the law.
- b) Sexual misconduct.
- c) Serious moral misconduct.
- d) Repeated flagrant disruptive behaviour.
- e) Conduct tending to bring the good name and reputation of the Church into disrepute.

6.3.8 Discipline or expulsion shall only be considered after appropriate attempts at mediation have failed.

6.3.9 Upon receipt of the recommendations of the Conflict Management Team, the Sexual Misconduct Team or the appointed mediator, the Board shall:

- a) Provide a copy of the recommendations to the person complained about.
- b) Set a time and place where the Board will consider the recommendations and any submissions from the person complained about.
- c) At a subsequent time, meet in private and decide the matter.

6.3.10 Disciplinary measures include:

- a) Apologies
- b) Agreement to refrain from repeating the offensive action
- c) Loss of office or position within the Church
- d) Suspension of some or all of member privileges for a period of time.
- e) Restitution
- f) Expulsion

6.3.11 The decision of the Board on a disciplinary hearing shall be in writing and shall be given to the person complained about. After obtaining legal advice, the President shall make a short report to the next congregational meeting on the matter.

6.3.12 After the Board makes its decision, the files and records of the examination of the complaint shall be kept strictly confidential unless otherwise instructed by the congregation.

6.4 Church Premises and Grounds Use Policy

6.4.1 The Church Administrator shall make all bookings of Church premises. In accepting bookings, the Church Administrator shall be mindful of the regular Church events which use the Church grounds and premises. Bookings for the use of Church grounds and premises will be made:

- e) For Church events (including events arranged by committees) by the Office Administrator: and
- f) For rentals, by the Rental Manager and in accordance with the Rental Manager contract and procedures.
- g) The Property Council Chair shall oversee the rental contract and process.

6.4.2 All Church bookings are made on a first come basis. If a booking conflict arises, the matter shall be resolved by the chair of the Property Management Council.

6.4.3 Church premises may be booked for the following purposes:

- a) Church worship services and committee meetings and special Church functions
- b) Rites of passage for registered members.
- c) Functions of external groups whose purposes and objectives do not conflict with Unitarian Principles.

6.4.4 The following rules shall govern all bookings of Church premises and grounds:

- a) Smoking must be outside church buildings. Cigarettes must be extinguished in the designated butt buckets.
- b) The Fire Code and all relevant municipal requirements must be observed.
- c) Liquor may be served provided all licensing requirements are met.
- d) Church kitchens and equipment are not to be used without specific permission.

6.4.5 All requests for Church building and grounds use for periods longer than one month but less than two months must be sent to the Property Management Council for decision; any such request for periods longer than two months must be sent to the Board for decision.

6.4.6 Registered Church members shall be financially responsible for any custodial costs and any additional costs incurred under the administrative user policy.

6.5 Human Resources

6.5.1 All relations with staff shall be guided by the following principles:

- a) Full conformity with relevant Provincial and Federal legislation on employment including the Employment Standards Act of British Columbia.
- b) Fundamental fairness, equity, and natural justice.
- c) Fair and equitable wages
- d) Respect for confidentiality and privacy where appropriate.

6.5.2 Acts of discrimination or harassment by or against any employee by reason of race, creed, colour, age, gender, marital status, nationality, ancestry, ethnic origin, family relations, sexual orientation, political affiliation will not be tolerated.

6.5.3 A staff person may become a member of the Church, but may not serve on the Board or other committees or teams if a potential for a conflict of interest exists.

6.5.4 All staff contracts shall be negotiated by the Human Resources Team and shall be signed by the employee and President.

6.5.5 The Board is the only body in the Church that has the authority to hire or dismiss staff.

6.5.6 All persons involved in providing services to children, youth or vulnerable adults shall be screened and trained in accordance with FUCV's Abuse Prevention Plan. Lay Chaplains and members of the Care and Concern Committee are exempt from these provisions, with the understanding that FUCV's insurance provider will probably not respond in the event of incident involving these groups.

6.5.7 Policy as To Benefits Package for Employees of First Unitarian Church of Victoria. General Statement – The Church wants a benefits package for its employees.

6.5.8 Eligibility – The benefits package will cover employees who have completed their probationary period and who work an average of at least 20 hours per week. The Church will attempt to have the benefits package cover employees who work an average of at least 18 hours per week but the Church cannot guarantee that the insurer will provide that coverage.

6.5.9 General Principle as To Benefits Promised Independent of This Policy – The Church has now promised, and may do so again in the future, to provide certain benefits to employees as part of the compensation due to those employees. Should the benefits promised be greater than those provided by the existing benefits package, the Church will provide the additional benefits.

6.5.10 Opting Out – Employees must subscribe to the benefits package except that, subject to the rules of the insurer, an employee may opt out of the extended health coverage or the dental coverage or both if that employee has such coverage elsewhere.

6.5.11 Cost of Benefits Package – The cost of the benefits package for each employee is to be paid 30% by that employee and 70% by the Church. In particular:

- The employee is to pay the cost of the long-term disability coverage; and
- The employee is to pay a further amount so that the total amount paid by the employee is equal to 30% of the cost of the benefits package for that employee.
- Should the cost of the premium for long term disability exceed 30% of the total premium then the employee must pay the cost of the premium for long term disability.
- The Church will deduct the amount to be paid by each employee from the employee's pay and remit that amount, and the amount to be paid by the Church, to the insurer.

6.6 Conflict of Interest

6.6.1 Trustees, staff, and members conducting the business of the Church shall take care to ensure that the best interests of the Church take precedence over private interests.

6.6.2 Trustees, staff and members conducting the business of the Church on finding that a potential conflict of interest exists shall advise the President and withdraw from the matter.

6.6.3 Trustee, staff and members conducting the business of the Church on finding themselves in a conflict of interest shall immediately advise the President in writing.

6.6.4 Except in rare cases, the Board shall not authorize transactions from which a Trustee, staff member, or person conducting the business of the Church may derive a unique benefit.

6.6.5 If it is deemed in the best interests of the Church to do so, the Board may make a decision that directly benefits a Trustee, staff member or a member conducting the business of the Church, provided the person involved is not present when the vote is taken and decision is approved by at least 75% of those qualified to vote.

6.7 Records: Security and Disposal

6.7.1 All Church records, including financial statements, correspondence, reports, and committee documents are considered property of the Church and not of any particular member, committee, or office holder.

6.7.2 The Church Administrator, in conjunction with the Treasurer, shall be accountable for the security of all Church records.

6.7.3 Confidential records are only available to

- a) President
- b) Treasurer
- c) Church Administrator
- d) Minister
- e) Persons specifically identified by the President or the Treasurer.

6.7.4 Church records shall be kept for the following periods:

- a) minutes of Board and General Meetings—10 years
- b) minutes of Council and Committee Meetings—3 years
- c) Church Correspondence—5 years
- d) Financial records—7 years.
- e) Staff Contracts—7 years
- f) Insurance documents and all files created as required by the Abuse Prevention Plan – Indefinitely (at least 40 years). Refer to FUCV's Abuse Prevention Plan for details.

6.7.5 Any destruction of Church records before the time periods defined in Section 6.7.4 have lapsed must be specifically approved by the Board.

6.7.6 When the time periods defined in Section 6.7.4 have lapsed, the Church Administrator shall turn the expired Church records over to the Archives Committee.

6.7.7 Those expired Church records that the Archives Committee does not want shall be destroyed by the Church Administrator in the following manner:

- a) Financial records involving members' pledges and contributions, personnel records and contracts, confidential files, and files deemed sensitive by the Church Administrator shall be shredded and sent to paper recycling
- b) Obtain legal advice before destroying archived personnel records and contracts, insurance documents and files created as required by the church's Abuse Prevention Plan.
- c) The remainder shall be sent to paper recycling.

6.8 Memorial Garden

6.8.1 The Board may appoint a Memorial Garden Advisory Group (MGAG). The mandate of the MGAG is to be responsible for all aspects of construction, maintenance, plaque placement, and record keeping related to the Memorial Garden and Wall and the Path of Remembrance.

6.8.2 On the advice of the Property Management Council, the Board will appoint five people to serve as the Memorial Garden Advisory Group (MGAG – the Advisory Group) and their replacements from time to time as recommended by the Advisory Group through Council. One of the five appointees is to be recommended by the Lay Chaplaincy Committee and another appointee recommended by the Committee, Group, or Individual, as the case may be from time to time, responsible for Garden and Grounds. The minister shall be a non-voting member of the Group.

6.8.3 The Group will review the composition of the Group and the roles of Group members annually and report to the Council or Board with recommendations for approval of new members or new chairs as needed from time to time.

6.8.4 Group members will serve for a two-year term, renewable, with three and two of the five positions in the group expiring in alternate years.

6.8.5 The Treasurer shall establish a Memorial Garden Fund. Contributions for installation of memorials, and for maintenance and development of the Memorial Garden and Path of Remembrance shall be deposited in this Fund.

6.8.6 Ashes may be scattered along the Path of Remembrance but not interred. Ashes may not be scattered on or near the Memorial Wall.

6.9 Use of Alcoholic Beverages

6.9.1 The policy of the Church with respect to the serving of alcoholic beverages at any and all Church events shall follow the laws of the Province of British Columbia. The organizers of each event shall be responsible for ensuring that such laws are upheld.

6.10 Relationship to Bylaws

6.10.1 In any perceived conflict in the wording between the Bylaws and the Policy document, the wording of the Bylaws shall prevail.

6.11 Personal Privacy

6.11.1 In accordance with applicable laws, the Church shall protect the privacy of its members, friends, employees or any other persons about or from whom the Church collects personal information.

6.11.2 For all internal purposes, the Church shall obtain consent from members, friends, employees and any other applicable persons for the collection, use or disclosure of any personal information and shall ensure that personal information is used and disclosed in accordance with this policy.

6.11.3 For external purposes, name, age, mail and email addresses, telephone number or other personal information shall not be sold, rented, leased or otherwise made available to any person without the explicit consent of the member, friend, employee or any other applicable person.

6.11.4 Personal information may be collected, used or disclosed at worship services, and at other Church events that are in compliance with Sections 12 (1) (d) (i and ii), 15 (1) (d) (1) (i and ii) and 18 (1) (d) (i and ii) of the Personal Information Protection Act of B.C.; to wit:

An organization may collect (or use or disclose) personal information about an individual without consent or from a source other than the individual ... at which the individual voluntarily appears and that is open to the public.

6.11.5 Any medium containing personal information – audio, visual (including photographs) or written (including print and digital) – produced by or for the Church shall remain the property of the Church.

6.11.6 The Office Administrator shall be the Privacy Officer, whose name shall be kept on file in the Church office. The Privacy Officer may delegate authority to other agents, whose names shall be kept on file in the Church office.

6.11.7 The Privacy Officer shall report to the Administration Council Chair and shall ensure the collection and storage of personal information is kept secure with physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards.

6.11.8 Members, friends, employees or any other applicable persons shall have access, at minimal cost, to their own personal information. If the Privacy Officer or a delegated agent is unable to grant the request within 30 days the individual may seek intervention under regulations of the Personal Information Protection Act of B.C.
